

Dear Mr. Phillips,

You are probably used to receiving complaints and negative communication from people in your line of business. But I think you should be notified when something is working and working extremely well on your property. I would like to tell you about the professionalism of your staff at San Pedregal in Phoenix and in particular Ashley Scott. You have a great staff that always had answers for my questions. Ashley always did a great job on showing